

ARMY FOREIGN LIAISON NEWSLETTER

For Members of the Washington Corps of Military Attachés

Summer 2014

FROM THE DIRECTOR:

Dear Members of the Washington Corps of Military Attachés,

Summer officially began on 21 June, and with it also has begun the many wonderful events available within the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia. Many such events are special military programs that are free of charge, such as the Army Band's concerts on the US Capital steps, and the Twilight Tattoo on Fort Myer. I'd like to thank everyone that was able to participate in the recent G-2-hosted Twilight Tattoo. It certainly was a wonderful program. The Twilight Tattoos are typically held each Wednesday during the summer months, and I encourage everyone that has not yet had a chance to see one to participate in one of the shows; it's truly a spectacular event.

Summer always brings changes, both in the Military Attaché Corps and in Headquarters, Department of the Army. This newsletter highlights some of the key movements, and more changes will become clearer as the summer progresses, and we'll be sure to inform the Attaché Corps of any changes that affect the Army senior leadership. Included in all these moves is my own, so this will be my last newsletter as the Director of Army Foreign Liaison. The past four years have been extremely rewarding, and I will never forget the many good colleagues with whom I have had the pleasure of associating. I want to thank all of you who have been a key part of my family over these last few years, for all your candor, insight, assistance, perspectives, and most importantly, for the friendship. I also want to take this opportunity to publicly thank the Foreign Liaison team, both past and present, who have selflessly supported me and have made Foreign Liaison one of the most rewarding places in which I have served. I have been blessed by a quality, first rate team and I will miss each and every one of them. They are the reason you, as attachés, are supported so well. I will be replaced by another very capable officer, Colonel Darren Lynn, who comes to Army Foreign Liaison with a lot of experience, to include tours as an attaché. Please support COL Lynn and his family as you have supported me. There have also been a few changes in the WAMA leadership. Those changes are also spelled out below.

All of us in FL hope that you and your families have the opportunity to take some time off during the summer and can travel around America. It is easy to get locked "inside the beltway" here in the DC area. While DC and the surrounding area have their charms, America has a lot more to offer and you can't begin to understand America until you see more of it. When everyone is back from their summer breaks, Army Foreign Liaison will be gearing up for its fall orientation trip to Louisiana and Alabama; we certainly hope you will be able to join us on what will be a great trip. I strongly encourage you to confirm your participation as soon as possible after the invitations are sent out. These trips are coordinated for you and we want to ensure maximum participation, for your benefit as well as ours.

As always, Army Foreign Liaison will continue to provide the Attaché Corps with professional, responsive service.

Sincerely,

Joseph K. Smith
Colonel, United States Army
Director, Foreign Liaison

HQDA Personnel Changes of Note:

The Army G-2 welcomed the long-awaited replacement for Mr. Tom Faust. Mr. Jeffrey Rapp assumed duties as the Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff, G-2. Mr. Rapp comes to the Army G-2 from the Defense Intelligence Agency, where he just spent over a year deployed to Afghanistan.

It is already time to say goodbye to MG Robert Walter, the Assistant G-2. MG Walter departed in mid-July, right after the Orientation Trip to the U.S. Army War College. He is departing the G2 for a new Joint Assignment.

MG William Duffy will be replacing MG Walter. MG Duffy is currently the Director of G-34 (Army Protection Program Directorate), in the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-3/5/7.

BG Bryan Fenton, the Deputy Director, Strategy, Plans and Policy, G-35, will be departing in July. His next assignment is Assistant Division Commander, 25th Infantry Division.

COL Ronald P. Clark will replace BG Fenton. We will send more information on Colonel Clarke after he arrives.

Unfortunately, Foreign Disclosure is bidding farewell to Ms. Sydney Guttman, who has been the Foreign Disclosure Desk Officer for the entire world for some time. Ms. Guttman is leaving government service to attend law school.

Sydney is currently training Mr. Brian Cotter to replace her. More on how to contact Brian is in the Foreign Disclosure section farther down in this newsletter.

WAMA DEAN'S CORNER

Fellow Attachés,

Washington DC finally escaped a very cold Winter. After a short Spring the weather has become hot and humid as we head into Summer. With the warmer weather has come the "Reception" season for the Attaché Corps and it has been tremendous being able to catch up with fellow colleagues at the different Embassies, often 2 or 3 times in the same week.

On a serious note, I would like to remind everyone that you represent the Attaché Corps and WAMA. If you register for an event or send a positive RSVP then please attend. If circumstances prevent you from attending then please get a message to the event organizers. It is embarrassing for organizers, our hosts and VIP speakers when a room is only half-full when a full room is expected. Event sponsors may still be required to pay money for guests who have failed to appear.

On a happier theme, WAMA and the Attaché Corps has enjoyed a busy 3 months since my last Dean's Corner. At about the same time as the Cherry Blossoms bloomed WAMA hosted the Spring Dinner on April 5th, at the Embassy of Canada. It was a very relaxed evening that started with drinks on the top floor of the Embassy, with the Capitol Building providing the perfect back-drop for photos. After drinks, the dining group of over 90 people moved down to the Canada Room where we were treated to a delectable dinner and the delightful music of the Strolling Silver Strings. Thanks to LTC Rob Crawford (Australia) and LTC Ken Butterworth (Canada) for bringing the dinner together. Also, thanks to Col Dave Rundle (Canada) who hosted the dinner on behalf of his Ambassador and Defense Attaché.

Our thanks also go to BRIG Ashok Dhingra (India) and the staff at the Embassy of India for hosting a marvelous WAMA Lunch on June 5th. Over 80 attachés enjoyed an insightful talk from Lieutenant General Jeffrey Talley, Chief of the US Army Reserve, followed by a very tasty Indian lunch. The lunch also provided an opportunity to farewell about seven attachés and welcome some who have just arrived. Thanks to LTC Kaname Yamashita (Japan), our Luncheon Committee Member for organizing the lunch with the Indian Defense Staff.

The 3rd WAMA lunch for 2014 will around October 29th. If you can host the 3rd lunch at your Embassy please contact LTC Yamashita.

The Attaché Corps and WAMA have continued to be very well supported by the staff of the HQDA G2 Directorate of Foreign Liaison. The Foreign Liaison staff have organized 3 great events since my last "Dean's Corner", the Attaché Spring Tour, an Attaché Briefing and an Army Twilight Tattoo hosted by Lieutenant Generals Grisoli and Legere.

You should all be aware that the Association of the United States Army (AUSA) has been reaching out to the Military Attaché community. AUSA is very keen for us to attend the Institute of Land Warfare "Breakfast" forums that are conducted each month. WAMA will continue to send out emails about these "Breakfasts". Also, for the Military Attachés, many of you should have received your invitations to the AUSA Annual Meeting that will be conducted October 13th-15th. Information about the AUSA Annual Meeting is available from the AUSA website at <http://ausameetings.org>.

Summer always arrives with a touch of sadness, as we farewell quite a number of the Attaché Corps who have become our friends. To those of you leaving this Summer, thank you for contribution the Attaché Corps and WAMA. You will be missed.

I would particularly like to thank the two Executive Committee members who have (or almost have) finished their time in DC. To Colonel Richard Smith (United Kingdom); who has organized three superb Winter Balls, was the Executive Secretary for 18 months and Membership Secretary for three years, thank you! Your service has been vital in keeping WAMA on track. To Colonel Mohamed Dahees (Egypt), you were a highly valued member of the Executive Committee and your involvement was always appreciated. We are sorry to see you go.

To all, I hope you can all enjoy a break over the Summer. The WAMA Executive Committee and I look forward to seeing you at the WAMA Welcome Day on Saturday, September 6th at Watkins Regional Park in Upper Marlboro, Maryland.

ATTACHÉ COORDINATION:

Dear Colleagues,

It is summer and that means warm weather, family vacations, baseball, barbeques, water sports and fireworks. It is also time for our annual summer trip, which we just completed. We had a very informative trip to the United States Army War College and the Gettysburg National Battlefield Site.

Although we had to shorten it by one day due to snow, we all had a great time on the recent orientation trip to Arizona and Texas. We thank all those who attended, and are grateful for your feedback on the trip, which we will incorporate in to future planning. We are aslo grateful to those who attended the recent information briefing on the Army Posture Statement and the Regionally Aligned Forces concept. For the upcoming fall and winter information briefings, we'll be looking at key topics that will address the current state of the Army as it continues its draw down.

Summer also means the initial planning for our fall orientation trip to Louisiana and Alabama. Invitations will go out sometime around the Labor Day holiday. We are looking forward to this unique trip and the diversity of units and organizations that we will visit, as well as the one-of-a-kind culture of New Orleans and the south.

Jackie, Robin and I send you pleasant summer greetings, and hope that you and your families are able to enjoy the local attractions and summer activities that the area has to offer, as well as enjoy the many opportunities to explore the other areas of the country.

R. Reed Anderson
Lieutenant Colonel, United States Army
Chief, Attaché Coordination Division

Military Attaché Orientation Program Notes:

Attaché Information Briefings:

Our next information brief is scheduled for 7 October 2014. We are still working on the topics. As we the topics, we will let you know. As usual, invitations and registration forms will go out about two weeks before the briefing dates. For now, please save the date. We also ask that you continue to provide your suggestions and requests for information briefing topics to LTC Reed Anderson and we will do our best to accommodate your interests and concerns.

Attaché Orientation Trips:

Our Summer 2014 Orientation Trip is rapidly approaching. We are excited about the program and look forward to the trip to the United States Army War College at Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania, and Gettysburg National Military Site. The trip will take place from 10-11 July 2014, and will not interfere with any of the World Cup games ☺.

Our Fall 2014 Orientation Trip, which will take place 1-8 November 2014, will take us to Louisiana and Alabama. Our stops in Louisiana will include New Orleans where we will visit with the Louisiana National Guard and the 377th Theater Sustainment Command (US Army Reserve), and Fort Polk which is the home of the Joint Readiness Training Center. In Alabama, we will visit Fort Rucker which is the home of the US Army Aviation Center of Excellence, and Redstone Arsenal where we will visit with US Army Material Command, US Army Security Assistance Command, and the US Army Space and Missile Defense Command/Strategic Command. We hope you will be able to join us on this trip.

FROM ARMY FOREIGN DISCLOSURE:

KEY NOTE: Mr. Brian Cotter is in the process of assuming the Foreign Visit Requests and Requests for Information responsibilities from Ms. Sydney Guttmann. Brian's phone number is 703-695-1041 and his email address is Brian.F.Cotter2.civ@mail.mil. For now, please include both Sydney and Brian on all correspondence for Foreign Disclosure.

Processing of One-time and Extended Visit Requests:

The online computer-based Foreign Visit System (FVS) remains the preferred method to submit visit requests. Use of the computer-based FVS expedites request processing time, provides a means of checking a visit's status and provides a means for confirming receipt of submitted visit requests. Embassies not using the computer-based FVS are hampered by the additional processing and staffing time required for manually submitted visit requests. Embassies are strongly encouraged to install and use the computer-based FVS. Installation of the computer-based FVS and associated instructional training on use of the computer-based FVS is available at no cost to Embassies. The only technical requirement for use of the computer-based FVS is Microsoft Internet Explorer 7.0 or higher. Embassies are encouraged to contact your Desk Officer or the DoD FVS Office at 571-372-7623 or by email at DTSASPANSupport@dtsa.mil to coordinated installation of the computer-based FVS and to arrange for the associated training.

Please also note that official visit requests must be sent to Foreign Disclosure, not to Foreign Liaison. Every country has a primary and an alternate Foreign Disclosure Desk Officer whom they are encouraged to contact with any questions on submitting Foreign Visit Request as well as Requests for Information. Please see the Desk Officer listing included with enclosures to identify your Desk Officer.

One-time Visit Requests:

In accordance with the Military Attaché Guide (Administrative Guidance), all Requests for Visit Authorization (RVA) should be submitted at least 30 days prior to the start date of the visit. The Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-2, will not process RVAs submitted less than ten working days (14 calendar days) prior to the requested start date of the visit. Visits submitted less than ten working days (14 calendar days) will be immediately returned without action. This affords the hosting U.S. Army Command the professional courtesy and necessary time to properly prepare for the visit and any related actions.

The only two exceptions to the 10 working day suspense requirement are:

-- Visits to the Army Secretariat and Army Staff;

-- Visits deemed mission essential or time sensitive by the U.S. Army. In order for you to be able to utilize this exception, a DA organization must have submitted a request for waiver to the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-2, on your behalf.

Extended Visit Requests:

All Extended Visit Requests must be submitted 90 days prior to the requested visit start date concurrently with the Extended Visitor's Photograph and Biography in accordance with the Military Attache Guide; Administrative Guidance. Extended Visit Requests submitted less than 90 days prior to the requested visit start date or submitted without the required Photograph and Biography will be returned to the Embassy without action. Photographs and Biographies must be sent, in accordance with the Military Attache Guide; Administrative Guidance, to:

usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.dami-cd-guardian@mail.mil

Extended Visit Requests, must include the following information in Case Details section of the Extended Visit Request: the name of the incumbent officer and the type of position the new officer will fill (Military Personnel Exchange Program Officer, Cooperative Personnel Program Officer, Foreign Liaison Officer, or Engineer and Scientist Exchange Program Officer).

Extended Visit Requests must include the following accompanying family member information in the Embassy Remarks Section of the Extended Visit Request: the family member's full name, passport number, gender, birth date, country of citizenship and relationship to the sponsor. If the Official on Extended Visit Request does not have accompanying family members, a statement to that effect should be included in the Embassy Remarks Section of the Extended Visit Request.

These important administrative requirements provide the hosting U.S. Army Command with key information necessary to prepare for and properly support the extended visitor and the extended visitor's accompanying family members. Extended Visit Requests submitted without this key information may be returned to the Defense Attaché Office without action.

Requests for Information:

To avoid processing delays when submitting Requests for Information (RFI), please ensure the request is sent to the RFI inbox, usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.dami-cd-foreign-disclo@mail.mil and not to Foreign Liaison. If you have any questions, call your Foreign Disclosure (DAMI-CDS) Desk Officer. They are all listed in the roster attached to this newsletter and are prepared to assist you in your submittals.

RECURRING ADMINISTRATIVE NOTES AND REMINDERS:

Office Calls and Other Meetings with the G-2:

Army Foreign Liaison is the point of contact to arrange any office calls or other meetings with the G-2 or any of the senior leaders within the G-2. Please do not contact the G-2 front office directly as this will only slow down your request when the front office personnel refer you back to Foreign Liaison. If a Military Attaché wants to meet with any G-2 senior leader, please contact the Director, Deputy Director or Chief of Coordination Division. If you want to arrange for a delegation to meet with anyone in G-2, please contact Foreign Liaison Operations Division. If you are not sure whom to contact, just call any one of us and we will get you on the right track.

Attaché Biographic Data Form:

The Attaché Coordination Division asks that you make use of the Biographic Information Form (Annex A-2 in the Attaché Guide) for accreditation and submit the completed form electronically to jacqueline.m.green.civ@mail.mil or robin.a.proudie.civ@mail.mil. You may also send a paper copy via the diplomatic courier facility. Submit it along with the other documents which are listed at: <http://www.dami.army.pentagon.mil/DAMI-FLGuide.aspx>.

Military Attaché Guide:

The November 2013 Social Directory and the October 2013 Administrative Guidance are the most recently published versions of the Attaché Guide. The new edition includes instructions on completed the new DD Form 1172-2 for identification cards and DEERS enrollment, which was noted in previous versions of the newsletter. You should have already received a hard copy in the mail, and we have also posted the Administrative Guidance on the FL website. As you may well imagine, the information in the Social Directory is constantly changing due to changes in the Attaché Corps, so please continue to keep us informed of changes as they happen. Please send any updates to robin.a.proudie.civ@mail.mil (for countries from A-K) or to jacqueline.m.green.civ@mail.mil (for countries from L-Z). We plan on publishing an update in the fall.

Military Personnel Exchange Program (MPEP) Nominations:

Nomination of exchange officers is a two-step process which must be completed 90-180 days before expected arrival of the officer.

Step One: Submit a nomination email to the HQDA MPEP Branch Chief and include the U.S. Army MPEP Position #, the U.S. Army host unit, a military biography and photograph of the nominee, and expected arrival date.

The MPEP Branch will process all nominations with the host unit chain of command in less than 30 days. To streamline the process, you may consider your nominee accepted if you receive no response after 30 days.

Step Two: Once the host unit chain of command has concurred with your nominee and no later than 30 days prior to arrival of the exchange personnel, submit the required Extended Visit Request (EVR) into the International Visits System located within your Embassy. This EVR will also include information on the exchange officer's family members.

The result of this process will be an Extended Visit Approval (EVA) which will allow the exchange personnel to actually arrive and perform the duties of the exchange position.

MPEP Branch Point of Contact for nominations or questions:

- John C. Wirick, Branch Chief, 703-692-8218, john.c.wirick.civ@mail.mil

PROTOCOL:

Ms. Sofia Stasishyn and Ms. Abbey Green are ready to help you. Please direct any invitations, correspondence, or protocol questions to the FL Protocol e-mail: hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.fl-protocol@mail.mil

You can contact Sofia directly at: sofia.stasishyn.civ@mail.mil or 703-692-1459. You can contact Abbey at: abbey.l.green2.civ@mail.mil or 703-692-1457.

Invitations:

General Guidelines:

Please direct any questions that you may have regarding protocol or invitations to the Army Foreign Liaison Protocol Section. We ask that you follow these guidelines concerning official social invitations extended to U.S. Army personnel:

- Please deliver invitations to Army Foreign Liaison at least 15 calendar days in advance of the event for the best U.S. Army representation.
- All invitations for Headquarters, Department of the Army personnel for official social occasions in the greater Washington, DC, area must be sent through Army Foreign Liaison. This enables Army Foreign Liaison to help you achieve your desired attendance. We ensure invitations are delivered promptly and monitor responses.
- To request the most current U.S. Army Foreign Liaison "A" List prior to sending your invitations, you may contact the Foreign Liaison Protocol Section at 703-692-1457 or 703-692-1459, or email your request to sofia.stasishyn.civ@mail.mil or abbey.l.landry.civ@mail.mil.

Hard Copy or Paper Invitations:

- PLEASE, DO NOT MAIL INVITATIONS. Deliver invitations directly to Foreign Liaison Protocol Section in Room 2E424, or to us through the Department of Defense (DoD) Diplomatic Courier located in the Pentagon Remote Delivery Facility (RDF) between 1000-1100 hours, Monday through Friday, except U.S. holidays. Please note that each invitation must reflect complete TO and FROM addresses.
- Invitations extended to U.S. Army general officers and U.S. Army civilian employees of similar rank should be accompanied by a list of all U.S. Service invitees.
- When sending invitations to a number of people for a single event, we recommend you email a scanned or electronic version of the invitation, along with a complete list of invitees, to Foreign Liaison Protocol at usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.fl-protocol@mail.mil, or fax a complete list of invitees to Foreign Liaison Protocol at 703-697-8412.

Email Invitations:

The use of e-vites is very practical, but we must issue the following guidelines to any embassies using these e-mail based invitations.

If you send invitations directly by e-mail to Headquarters, Department of the Army personnel, please also e-mail a list of all invitees to the event to usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.fl-protocol@mail.mil

Please do not e-mail invites directly to the senior Army leadership. By that, we mean, the Secretary of the Army, the Chief of Staff of the Army, the Under Secretary of the Army, the Vice Chief of Staff of the Army, and the Director of the Army Staff. If you wish to invite those individuals, let FL Protocol know and we will deliver the invitations. Army officials expect invitations to be routed through Army Foreign Liaison. If an invitation is sent directly to a senior leader’s office, they return it to Foreign Liaison for proper routing anyway. Therefore, the most efficient delivery method is to deliver your US Army invitations to the Foreign Liaison Protocol Officers by email, courier or fax.

Dress:

Prescribing dress in invitations can be confusing, especially for military uniforms. For the next few years, it will be even more confusing as the Army phases out the Army Green Uniform and transitions to the new Army Service Uniform, which will, for the most part, mirror the current Army Dress Blue Uniform. During this transition period, Army personnel may wear either the Army Green Uniform or the Army Blue Uniform as the Class “A” uniform. We emphasize that you at the foreign embassies should not have to guess which uniform is appropriate for U.S. Army personnel. Please use one of the standard categories of dress: formal (rarely used), semi-formal, informal, casual or very casual. Based on that guidance, Army personnel will know the correct uniform to wear. If you want all attendees in civilian dress, please make that clear.

The most confusing category of civilian dress is “casual,” and its various versions, such as “business casual” or “smart casual.” The category can include everything from jacket and tie to a polo shirt and slacks. To reduce confusion, you should always explain what you mean by “casual” when it is on an invitation.

The following chart illustrates the civilian and equivalent military standards of dress. Note that as the Army phases in the Army Service Uniform and phases out the Green Uniform, the pre-and post-1800 distinction will disappear.

Category of Dress	Civilian Attire	U.S. Army Uniform
Formal	White Tie	Army Mess Dress Uniform
Semi-Formal	Tuxedo (Black Tie)	Army Mess Dress, Dress Blue with Black Bow Tie, or Army Service Uniform (Blue) with Black Bow Tie
Informal	Business Suit	Before 1800: Army Service Uniform (Blue) or Army Green Uniform After 1800: Army Service Uniform or Dress Blue with Four-in-Hand Tie
Casual	Sports Jacket with or without Tie (Invitation should stipulate this)	Army Class B Uniform (either Army Service Uniform or Army Green) Note: This is rarely used, and is limited to certain events, usually during hot weather.
Very Casual	Shirt and Slacks with or without Jacket. (If more casual attire is desired, such as for a barbecue, the invitation should stipulate this)	None
